NOT A PARTISAN QUESTION.

Before the end of the present week the attitude of the two houses at Jefferson City towards fellow-servant legislation is likely to be pretty clearly defined. With the election bills in the hands of a conference committee, a test vote on the fellow-servant question can not long be avoided.

Enough is already known of the attitude of members to make it certain that a good fellow-servant bill will easily pass the House. It is also known that a large majority of the Democratic Senators are ready to vote for such a bill. If the bill is defeated in the Senate, it will be by a coalition of the Republican Senators with a small minority of Democrats who are the willing allies of the lobby.

The suggestion, sometimes heard, that the Democrats should caucus on the fellow-servant bill is foolish. There is no excuse for making a partisan issue on the bill. There is nothing partisan in the question raised by it. Members must meet it on their individual responsibility. Those who are for the lobby will oppose it. That is the issue, and members must face it as individuals.

THE NEW SHIRBOLETH.

It is announced in various dispatches from Washington that John Herbert Page, a Missourian, now a citizen of Arkansas, has been temporarily discharged from the Government Printing Office upon the charge of having written a private letter criticizing the Administration's financial policy.

This, then, is to be the Cleveland test of Democracy. Support the Administration on its gold platform, or out of office and out of the Democratic party you go.

The trouble with this test is that it would exclude from the party at least four out of every five Democrats in the country, and nine out of ten Democrats in those States whose electoral votes the Democrats have a fair chance of winning.

Is the Administration prepared to make such a war of extermination? Or does it blindly and foolishly believe that John Herbert Page can be safely kicked as a warning to Democrats whose test of "virility" in politics is the offices?

MAJ. RAINWATER'S FLEA.

Maj. Rainwater's letter to the Illinois legislative committee in defense of the Merchants' Bridge and Terminal Company is irrelevant and avoids the main issue. His defense is that of a man arrested for shrewd, who pleads that he is not guilty of murder. It is charged that this corporation has bunched the people of St. Louis. The charter for the bridge and franchises of enormous value for terminal facilities were obtained through pledges that St. Louis would be given free competition in bridge and terminal service, and that no combination would be entered into with the Eads Bridge, or any other competitor, for the monopoly control of bridge and terminal facilities. The charter of the company expressly forbids such combination.

If England is disowning the triple protest, she is taking a sensible course. There is no reason why Russia should be allowed to profit by Japan's victories, and by sustaining Japan in her just demands. England will win the good-will of the Japanese, which is likely to have a distinct trade value in the near future. In view of the part she has played in history, it is idle to suppose that England is actuated in her course by any sense of justice. It is self-interest that is moving her, but it is enlightened self-interest. The wisest role that any great power can now play in the State is to cultivate the friendship of Japan.

The suggestion that the United States should enter into an alliance with England and Japan to prevent European interference is absurd. The United States should enter into no entangling alliances with foreign nations. It is to be hoped, however, that Secretary Gresham will see his way clear to casting the moral influence of this country into the scale against such interference. The services which the United States has already rendered to both combatants in the recent war will form a valuable basis for the extension of American trade in the East. There is no reason why we should hold coldly aloof at a crisis, when similar friendly services will be doubly valuable to Japan.

The offense of the parties to the bridge and terminal monopoly can not be set aside by pleas of extenuation in the newspapers. The offenders must be held to account in court under strict interpretation of law. The people must be protected.

Last Monday the Post-Dispatch remarked that the merchants who failed to advertise in the previous day's Sunday Post-Dispatch would feel the effects during the week. Didn't they? Don't all answer at once, for fear of a Wagner chorus. No matter which other paper a merchant advertises in, he must advertise in the Sunday Post-Dispatch if he wants results. It goes into more St. Louis homes than any two other Sunday newspapers, and its readers are of the very best class of buyers.

AMERICANS AGAINST AMERICA.

British statesmen justify the adherence of the British Government to the gold standard on the ground that Great Britain is being a creditor nation, it would be folly to consent to any policy which would cheapen money. The dearer the money, the greater its rate of enhancement, the better for Great Britain. Mr. Gladstone, when Premier, frankly admitted that this was the ground of his refusal to join in any movement to rehabilitate silver.

But, poor as this justification is from the standpoint of ethics or that of the welfare of the British people as distinguished from the British money-lenders, it is more than the gold monetarists of this country can plead. It is demonstrable that our gold men are working in the interest of Europe and against the interest of the United States.

The amount of gold coin in the whole world is, in round numbers, $3,900,000,000. The interest on this entire sum, at 4 per cent, would amount to $152,000,000. But if we adhere to a gold standard and all payments of interest and other indebtedness of the United States to Europe are to be made in gold, it is estimated that we would have to send abroad $200,000,000 yearly, which is $48,000,000 in excess of the interest, at 4 per cent, on the whole world's stock of gold.

In the light of these facts, it is easy to understand how foreign speculators are enabled to manipulate our markets so as to extract the fat, and how the foreign financiers can corner gold, as far as we are concerned, and compel the Government to borrow it at their terms.

THE CHIEF OBSTRUCTION IN THE WAY OF IMPORTING BEEF IN ORDER TO REDUCE THE PRICE OF THE BEEF COMBINE IS THE TARIFF OF 20 PER CENT. THIS TARIFF WAS LEVIED OBTINENTLY TO PROTECT THE PRODUCERS OF CATTLE, BUT, LIKE ALL OTHER PROTECTIVE TARIFFS, SERVED AS A SHIELD FOR THE GREED OF AN OPPRESSIVE MONOPOLY.

AGAIN YESTERDAY THE ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH SHOWED A GRATIFYING ADVERTISING INCREASE. IT CARRIED 91 COLUMNS OF ADVERTISEMENTS, AS COMPARED WITH 88 COLUMNS IN THE CORRESPONDING SUNDAY ISSUE A YEAR AGO. OF THE ADVERTISEMENTS OF LOCAL RETAIL MERCHANTS, IT CARRIED 44 COLUMNS, WHILE THE ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC HAD BUT 37. OF READING MATTER, THE ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH PRINTED 191 COLUMNS, THE GLOBE-DEMOCRAT 167 COLUMNS AND THE REPUBLIC 155 COLUMNS.

JOSEPH M. HAYES, THE WELL-KNOWN ST. LOUISAN, SHOULD ENTER INTO NO ENTANGLING ALLIANCES WITH FOREIGN NATIONS. IT IS TO BE HOPED, HOWEVER, THAT SECRETARY GRESHAM WILL SEE HIS WAY CLEAR TO CASTING THE MORAL INFLUENCE OF THIS COUNTRY INTO THE SCALE AGAINST SUCH INTERFERENCE. THE SERVICES WHICH THE UNITED STATES HAS ALREADY RENDERED TO BOTH COMBATANTS IN THE RECENT WAR WILL FORM A VALUABLE BASIS FOR THE EXTENSION OF AMERICAN TRADE IN THE EAST. THERE IS NO REASON WHY WE SHOULD HOLD COLDLY ALONE AT A CRISIS, WHEN SIMILAR FRIENDLY SERVICES WILL BE DOUBLY VALUABLE TO JAPAN.

THOMAS CARLYLE AND WALES.

CONTRASTING NOTES OF INTEREST ABOUT TWO DISTINGUISHED MEN.

LONDON, April 22.—The committee appointed to raise funds for the purchase of the residence of the late Thomas Carlyle, in order to fit it up as a Carlyle Museum, have already collected the £1,722, and it is expected the purchase will be completed in May and that the museum will open in June. Carlyle's writing desk was among the articles recently auctioned off at the sale, and a copy of "Oscar Wilde" brought 14 guineas and was probably secured by an American.

Some curious details have been published here regarding the life of the Prince of Wales. It appears that he possesses seventy uniforms at an average cost of £170. It is added that he pays £100 a month for his coat and waistcoat, £100 for a dress suit. For trousseau he pays 4 guineas (£22). During the London season the Prince has three silk hats every fortnight and never wears a pair of gloves twice. In summer he is the best dressed man in the kingdom.

During the past two years the wall of the dam, which should have been straight, has shown a bulge to the extent of one inch, and the water has been leaking through the breach.

THREE LIVES WERE LOST.

Fatalities at the Pittsburg Fire
Greater Than First Reported.

A NURSE'S FAITHFULNESS.

William Mitchell Burned to Death Trying to Save Samuel Weaver,
His Patient.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 28.—A frame dwelling owned by Henry Snyder in the East End and occupied by Samuel Weaver and his family burned last night. Weaver was very ill with typhoid fever and was known to have perished, but to the best of body and the of Frederick Snyder, son of the owner of the building, were recovered from the building.

The wife of William

Mitchell, aged 22, the nurse attending Mr.

Weaver, was recovered later, making the third fatality from the fire, while Mrs.

Weaver was in a critical condition from burns and fright.

The fire started in an adjoining house and soon communicated to the Snyder building.

Weaver was the mother of a day-old baby and she and her child were rescued with great difficulty. A number of men had to be called out to help save them.

The police could not disperse the crowd until finally one officer tore down the placards.

WARNED BY HIGHBINDERS.

Placards Which Caused Consternation in 'Frisco's Chinatown.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 29.—Rising with the feds amidst in the heart of Chinatown Sunday afternoon there was a babel of shrill voices that could be heard for blocks and a great crowd of pig-tailed, blubliped and green-looking Chinese was fairly wedged in at two corners on Dupont street, where Washington and Jackson intersect. So dense was the excited mass that the fire department was compelled to close line to suspend operations, pending a clearing of the way. The trouble was over four Chinese placards at each of the points named, which were manifested to the highbinders and which may be productive of war in the Chinese quarters. This was the test of the placards.

"THE DEVILS."—The white devils sent from Chinatown by Chief of Police Crowley had lately been held in check. They do no more now than to annoy us. We are only too glad to afflict with another. The Captain and eight men appointed by the Six Companies to keep order in Chinatown were sent to the devils were. They are blackmailing the women, the opium sellers and the lottery gamblers. None of us are safe from them and we are compelled to pay them to have a put up with the white devils, but we won't put up with the Six Companies' devils.

Some time ago the Chinese Six Companies organized a police force of its own. It is composed of nine men, a Captain, Sergeant and seven privates. They are selected for their qualities and trustworthiness. They must be brave men so as to face the highbinders without fear when they are in a crowd and they must be trustworthy so as to command the respect of the Chinese community.

It is this little force that circulars posted on the Chinatown walls, which are to be put up with the white devils.

The police could not disperse the crowd until finally one officer tore down the placards.

ASTOR AND THE INNER MAN.

New York's New Restaurant "Will Astonish the Post-Dispatch."

NEW YORK, April 29.—John Jacob Astor is to build a restaurant at Broadway and Forty-second street, which will vie with the best in America or Europe. The Shantley family have a shophouse next that will be open to the public, and will be induced Astor to build a restaurant which is expected to astonish the world. On the roof of the shophouse restaurant, there will be a restaurant, with tables and chairs, and smoking will be permitted; also a cafe for men and a banquet hall in a number of ways it is to mark a new departure.

DONHAM, THE CZAR.

Experts Going Over the Indicted
Springfield Clerk's Books.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., April 29.—Indicted for embezzlement by the Grand Jury, which just advanced. Eight years ago Donham was made Circuit Clerk by the Republican party, and four years ago became a political boss. As an official he was a czar, refusing to let the public have a voice in the paper and in his office unless it suited him to do so. He refused to let any paper in his office be by newspapers which printed stories of the corruption of the chamber with gambling when he wanted the facts suppressed. One of the newspapers had the Legislature separate the offices of Circuit Clerk and Clerk. Donham had been drawing separate salaries as czar of each court, and it was claimed that as Circuit Clerk he had to part with his money to the detriment of the other office. A suit brought against him by the county for $3,000, received in fees as Circuit Clerk, is now pending.

Donham claims the whole proceeding is the malicious work of his enemies.

INCOME TAX.

Twenty-Five Per Cent of the Heavy
Tax-Payers Have Made No Returns.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Collectors of customs have been instructed to send in all income-tax returns that have at that time been entered and substantiated on Wednesday, and that on May 15 all the remaining returns to be sent in. It is probable that the returns which will begin to arrive on Wednesday, May 1, will comprise fully three-fourths of the whole and from that time on the tax bureau will be crowded with work. The returns that come in prior to the decision of the Supreme Court have nearly all been returned to the members of the English Church Union have been protesting against the marriage of divorced persons in church. The attorney's scene was associated with this protest.

York valued at $4,000,000, has been traced by W. Pierpont White, one of his relatives, to a ranch county, where he died in May 1888, on a ranch this city and Dungeness here.

covered the members of the English

Church Union have been protesting against the marriage of divorced persons in church. The attorney's scene was associated with this protest.

NEW YORK, April 29.—John Lincoln, aged 88 years, a cousin of Abraham Lincoln, is an inmate of the almshouse here. He much resembles the martyred President. Recently his mind gave way. He is the son of a widow who died in 1859. John inherited $30,000, and in his time was regarded as a great "sport." His money went rapidly and he was finally compelled to make a family arrangement, and throughout the entire country a conservative estimate is 25 per cent.

A preparation which enriches and purifies the blood and assists nature in repairing wasted tissue must have a wide range of usefulness.

Such a preparation is Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. The uses of Scott's Emulsion are not confined to wasting diseases, like consumption, scrofula or anæmia. They embrace nearly all those minor ailments associated with loss of flesh.

PAINTED FOR JOY.

An Affecting Scene in the Court of Criminal Correction.

Mrs. Laura Todd resides at 3251 Olive street. Her young son, Parker Todd, is the pride of her heart. Until April 19, last, there was not a blemish upon his reputation. On that day he was arrested on the charge of burglary and larceny. His mother was convinced that her son was innocent, and in the Court of Criminal Correction, at 12 o'clock Monday only ten minutes were required to convince Justice Dan Murphy that that mother was right. When young Joseph Fraai was brought in, he too was discharged.

What the young犯 was her married daughter, Mrs. Lannigan, and several other ladies, who were prepared to prove an alibi for the young man. The charges against her son were that he had broken into the home of the butcher shop of Charles Peterson, Compton and Bell avenues, and tapped the safe. The State, however, made no arrest. Peterson's testimony amounted to the fact that he had been informed by his son that he was about 20 years of age and his brother was younger.

SUPREME COURT PETITIONS.

Several Western Cases Have Been Denied Rehearings.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The Supreme Court to-day denied the petitions for rehearing in the cases of the Citizens' Savings and Loan Association, vs. the City of Perry, Ill.; the county bond case; the St. Louis and San Francisco Railway Company vs. Gill and others; and the water damage case, and Mulkey and Shannon vs. United States; an Oregon smuggling case. The Court also denied a petition to decide an unanticipated dispute in the case of Coffin vs. United States, in Indiana, conspiracy case.

BRUTE PUNISHED.

Frank Denning Fined $25 for Assaulting Martin Shelby.

His name is Frank Denning. About 7 o'clock Monday morning Officer Denning, of the 25th police precinct, was going up the street when he saw a boy at a window, and the boy turned his face and twisted his arm until the little fellow cried with pain. He was selling papers and Denning's object was to drive him away from the corner. Little Shelby is but 6 years old.

THE TRUE WIFE IGNORED.

Policy on the Life of an Intended Bigamist Questioned in Court.

Minnie Robinson of this city appeared in the United States Circuit Court on Monday to show cause why she should be paid a $300 insurance policy, drawn by the United States Mutual Benefit and Life Insurance Association.

The policy was upon the life of Dr. J. C. Moore of Helena, Ark., who was accidentally killed in a collision with the deceased, is still living, and she questions the right of Miss Robinson to the money.

Recently Mrs. Moore brought suit in Arkansas, and the trial was adjourned. She was defeated. Now Miss Minnie brings suit.

"Dr. Moore and I were to be married, and the insurance papers were made out to me as the intended gift," said Miss Robinson of the stand.

In the cross-examination, the attorneys of the insurance company made prominent the fact that the second wife had died, and was living with his wife at the time that he was engaged to Miss Robinson.

The policy was upon the life of Dr. J. C. Moore of Helena, Ark., who was accidentally killed in a collision with the deceased, is still living, and she questions the right of Miss Robinson to the money.

The case was taken under advisement.

THEY WATCHED HER DIE.

A Curious Crowd Observes the Painful Death of a Child.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., April 29.—Annie Zonie, 4 years old, awoke to find her cot and her clothing adrift. Her father carried her from the house to the garden, and there buried the child to her arm-pits in fresh earth, hoping that the earth would cover the body. But the little one perished, in fact, while a great crowd of curious people paid on.

BELLEVILLE NEWS.

A delegation of about 1,000 labor fans accompanied the Clerks to Mascoutah Sunday, and the meeting was well attended. The umpiring, done by a St. Louis man named O'Connell, was bad, and his decisions were not popular. The St. Louis fans were affected by the real status of the game up to the sixth inning, when the Clerks left the field on account of one of his decisions. At the seventh, the St. Louis fans and the umpire agreed to let the game be decided by a coin toss, and the St. Louis fans were dislodged and the town will be without police this week.

Lyda, of Webster, Mo., who was a doctor at Shabbona, Mo., and came to St. Louis at the instance of Mrs. Reid to run a drug store in partnership with her. The suit was filed in the Circuit Court, and the attorney for the plaintiff, George Schaeffer, has procured a building permit for a $1,000 dwelling, to be erected in the Schaeffer addition.

KILLED HIS BROTHER.

A Son's Theft of a Mule Caused the Trouble.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., April 29.—Columbus Phelps shot and killed his brother, Henry Phelps, this morning at daylight. Several years ago Ray Phelps, a son of Columbus, stole a mule, it is alleged, from his Uncle Henry and left the country. About the time the young man placed himself in the Circuit Court of Criminal Correction, at 12 o'clock Monday only ten minutes were required to convince Justice Dan Murphy that that mother was right. When young Joseph Fraai was brought in, he too was discharged.

What the young犯 was her married daughter, Mrs. Lannigan, and several other ladies, who were prepared to prove an alibi for the young man. WANT A BETTER SCHOOL.

Colored Citizens Object to the Building at 4300 St. Louis Avenue.

There will be a largely attended meeting of colored citizens of the northwestern portion of the city, Monday night, at the corner of Methuen and Clark on the 43rd avenue, near St. Louis Avenue, to hear a report from a committee consisting of Rev. Hopkins and Alfred White, John O. Smith and Emanuel Hughes concerning the Simon (Colored) Public School at 4300 St. Louis Avenue.

This school, a large frame building, presided over by Dr. Cole, is considered by the colored people of that neighborhood as poorly constructed, badly ventilated and in possible danger of collapsing. They think they are entitled to a better building than the one now in use. At a recent meeting held last Monday night, the committee was appointed. It will report to-night, recommending that the School Board be requested to give them a better school building.
